

Class: Finding Your Story, Telling Your Truth

Instructor: Carolyn Holbrook

Please Bring the Following

- Notebook or laptop
- Writing tools
- Any works in progress that will be useful to have on hand during the class

Your Supply Fee Covers

- Copies of essays & memoir excerpts
- Carolyn will also bring copies of chapters from these texts:
 - Tell it Slant, 3rd Edition, Brenda Miller & Suzanne Paola
 - Writing True 2nd Edition by Sondra Perl & Mimi Schwartz

Student Learning Outcomes

- To encourage students who are working in creative nonfiction to continue exploring the possibilities of the genre; the uses of narration and reflection, the changing shape of memories, and the distinctions between the private, personal, and public from the standpoints of material and audience.
- To complete 5-10 pages of a work students may wish to continue developing after this class.

